INTERGROUP MEETING - DECEMBER 30, 1990

Phil P. opened the meeting at 10:35 a.m. with the Serenity Prayer and introductions around the room.

Minutes of the November 25th meeting were read and accepted.

Acting Treasurer, Phil P., reported a balance of $794.04 which includes $1000 sent to World Service. Carrie D. will stay on until new treasurer is found.

It was reported that the April convention has been moved to September 21, 22, 23 at the same location. Literature is now 20¢ each and the Big Book (in process) is now $7.50. Jack C. will make a copy of the new Steps 1&2 which will be sent out with the minutes to each group and then available at Intergroup meetings.

Nicholas V. made a motion, Inge. I. seconded to send copies of Steps 1&2 to each group with the minutes. Unanimously accepted.

Chris L. reported that more information on the 800 # will be available at the January meeting when reports will be in from the groups.

Phil P. suggested a speaker's list be available to companies going smoke free. Nicholas V. suggested this be taken up at a later date.

Inge. I. reported changes made with regard to each group's contact/secretary and Paul will be updating the Directory.

Old Business: the matter of chips was delayed to another meeting.

ARRANGE mtg for N.A.S.O. March 16th 1991 12 noon '91
