ADJOURNED: 11:30 a.m.
CHAIR: Phil Peyrot
MINUTES: Jacqueline Callan

Minutes of the July meeting were read by Jacqueline C. Corrections: a reminder was omitted to reach out to the public via brochures and directories and the number for the Post Office Box is 25335. Jack C. made a motion to accept as corrected, seconded by Bob J. Approved.

TREASURER: Phil P. reported a balance as of 08/19/91 of $561.76. Mike K. made a motion to accept, Chris L. seconded. Approved.

CHAIRMAN: Phil P. reminded the group about the Conference in San Diego September 20, 21, 22 and urged everyone to register if they have not as yet. To date, there are only 34 people registered and 10 rooms reserved. There are still T-shirts available.

OUTREACH: Chris L. has brochures available for those who want to leave them with their own doctors, local libraries, etc. Jacqueline C. asked for anyone interested in participating at the Panorama City shopping mall September 14th Public Information Day to contact her. Also, we have been invited back to Topanga Shopping Mall by Councilwoman Joy Picus to participate in their Community Information Day October 19th. according to Doug H.

MEETINGS & DIRECTORY: Connie K. reported inquiries from callers about living with a smoker and someone concerned with our references to God. Jack C. responded that Alcoholics Anonymous' Big Book - with emphasis on the Chapter to the Agnostic - be suggested and the 12&12 until our own book is published. Phil P. stated that Nicanon was started about two years ago but need more support to get going. Connie K. suggested a new piece of literature directed specifically to this issue be considered. Bob J. said he has such a piece of literature and would be willing to let the group use it to address the issue. Mike K. reported letters were sent to meetings we are concerned about to know whether or not to keep in the directory as valid meetings. Another mailing will be made to all groups to get correct information. Postcards can be made up to remind each group of the Intergroup meeting. Bob J. made a motion to send postcards to each group to remind of Intergroup meetings for six months. Nicholas V. seconded. Approved.

Jack C. reported the NICOTINE ANONYMOUS trademark has been registered.

Phil P. asked for help from anyone with knowledge of computer bulletin boards.

NOMINATIONS: Phil P. accepted the nomination of Nicholas V. for Chairperson for the coming year. Nominations are open for Secretary and Treasurer. Help is needed for the Service Board for the coming year.

Jack C. announced there is an agenda for the Conference in San Diego. Mike K. volunteered to retype it on the computer and get it out to all the groups.

Phil P. thanked Connie K. for refreshments. Miriam R. will bring refreshments for next month.

Phil P. announced that NICOTINE ANONYMOUS is officially a non-profit organization.
